PETERS, Gustav (Dr.)
Toetting, Dr. Thierschstr. 7
(Old acquaintance of MINGOKE)

GBA-140c, 16 Mar 51 - sub j: "Gustav PETERS"

PETERS is an SSD official. He holds the rank of Ober Kommissar and works in the SSD office in Geschwister Scholl Str., Schweinfurt. He has also been contacted at his home address: Schloss Garten Allee 3, Schwerin. He works for an SSD official in civilian clothes known as Ob. He may be identical with PETERS (Ob, born 8-1910, Polizeirat, and a member of the Operations Section, SSD, Schwerin, as reported by GESP. 4-10-1950. (should be 100-100000-1001)

MGBA-P405, 16 Mar 51, lists Gustav PETERS above as being in a resistance group against the Nazis. He was at that time a DDP police official with the SSO.

WOMA-3517, 29 Mar 51, PCB ONLY, CIC trace to BOB

CIC has record of one Dr. Jur. Gustav Adolf PETERS, born 22 July 1909 in Rostock, who was arrested by CI Detachment, DEFE #10, Heilbronn at Heilbronn on 23 Feb 1946 on the charge of having been an Allgemeine SS Schafffuhrer. PETERS alias: L-76 H, dark blond hair, blue eyes, scar on forehead, former Captain of Artillery and SS PION in France in 1945. PETERS' Fragebogen indicates he was a member of the following organizations: NSDAP, Allgemeine SS appointed Schafffuhrer in 1941, NS-Antikommunistenbund, NS-Altherrenbund, Deutsche Studentenschaft, NS-Reichsriegermann and Deutsche Christliche Bewegung. CIC records show PETERS was employed by the Oberkirchenrat Schwerin from Sept 1935 until 1941 during which time he held the positions of Assessor, Kirchenrat, Kirchenrechtstat and Konsistorialrat. The records further show he was employed by the Oberkirchenrat Schwerin as an Oberkonsistorialrat for the period 1941 to 1945. PETERS listed his permanent residence as Schwerin.

It is said of him that he "worked in close cooperation with the office of Colonel Josef MEISINGER in Tokyo, and with the latter's agents, HARNKE and HUBER." Dr. KLAR was originally sent out from Germany as an exchange student to study the Japanese language. He was assigned for awhile to the German Legation at Hsinching, Manchuria; and later on he retained his contacts in Manchuria and made many contacts in Occupied China by his constant travels. On these journeys he often tried to enlist Germans that he met in the service of the SDPO. One of the men that he tried (unsuccessfully) to recruit was Ernst REIMERS, the manager of the Peking Office of Carlowitz and Company. REIMERS refused to join the organization. Prof. Dr. Hermann RASCHOFER, Braunau a/Inn, Ringstr. 10, aus der laufenden Berichterstattung bekannt, hat sich bereit erklärt, in den Versammlungen der Volksdeutschen, insbesondere der Sudetendeutschen, über deren rechtliche und politische Lage zu sprechen.

In diesem Zusammenhang ist von Bedeutung, dass Prof. RASCHOFER mit Dr. Walter KAHN, einem der wichtigsten Männer um den Führer der Sudetendeutschen Partei, Konrad KAHN, und deren Mitbegründer, in Verbindung steht; Dr. KAHN ist gegenwärtig Gemeindesekretär in LANDSHUT in Bayern. Nach der "Kameradschaftsbund", der bei der Entstehung der Sudetendeutschen Heimatfront und später der Sudetendeutschen Partei eine entscheidende Rolle gespielt hat, scheint sich wenigstens teilweise wieder zusammengefunden zu haben.

Prof. RASCHOFER, der grosse politischen Erfahrung und damit offenbar daran, mit Hilfe der Volksdeutschen, insbesondere der Sudetendeutschen, in Österreich zu einer politischen Position zu kommen, da er den VdD ablehnt und sein Vorhaben innerhalb der LVP Karriere zu machen, missglückt ist.

Probably the 1st man with only an elementary school education to lecture at a University. Originally a miner and foreman in a Ruhr coal-mine. He is the prototype of the National Socialist veteran. After holding various party offices he took over in 1933 the newly formed office of Treuhaender der Arbeit (Labour Trustee) for the Rhineland area; he concerned himself chiefly with the propaganda side. Just before the war he was appointed Ministerialdirektor in the Reich Min. of Labour, where his special job was the drawing up of new labour conditions in the mining industry. He still came once a week to Cologne U. to give a lecture. (source is a PW by the name of REIFFERSCHEIDT, judged to be very reliable.)
